INDEX

Academic freedom, right of teachers to, 147
Accreditation
  criteria of, 61–62
  defined, 61
  objections to accrediting agencies, 64–65 procedures of accrediting agencies, 62 proposed reforms of accrediting agencies, 65–68 purposes of, 61
  services of accrediting agencies, 62–64
Adult education
  adult educability, 125–126
  civic value of, 126–129
  defined, 122
  extent of, 122–123
  financing of, 128–129
  for citizenship, 126–128
  for community participation, 126–128
  forms of, 123–124
  greatest system of, operated by Department of Agriculture, 14 influenced by education for youth, 126
  motives for, 124–125
  should help our aging population, 91
ADULT EDUCATION IN THE UNITED STATES, Paul L. Essert, 122–129
Aikin, Wilford M., cited, 23, 117
ALBERTY, HAROLD, How May the Schools Further Democracy? 17–24
Alberty, Harold, quoted, 19
Alderman, Edwin Anderson, 46
Alexander III of Macedon (Alexander the Great), 3
Allen, Hollis P., 128
Allen, Winifred Y., cited, 170
ARMSTRONG, W. EARL, A Democratic Society Needs Professional Teachers, 136–141
Aycock, Charles B., 46
Axline, Virginia M., cited, 104, 170

Bagley, William C., cited, 92
Barber, Kathleen, 167
Barnard, Frederick A. P., 46
Barnard, Henry, 93, 96
Becker, Howard, editor, 78
Bell, Bernard Iddings, cited, 172
Bell, Howard, cited, 112
BENJAMIN, HAROLD, Education in a Democracy, 10–16
Bethel, Lawrence L., cited, 62
BIBLIOGRAPHY, Research Division, National Education Association, Frank W. Hubbard, Director, 167–172
Binet, Stephen Vincent, quoted, 125
Boll, Eleanor S., cited, 78
BOSSARD, JAMES H. S., Social Change in the United States, 64–79
Bossard, James H. S., cited, 72, 78
Boyd, G. H., cited, 169
Brubaker, Grace, 167
BRUMBAUGH, A. J., The Significance of Accreditation, 61–68
Burgess, Ernest W., cited, 78
Burnham, William H., cited, 126

Caldwell, Joseph, 93
Campbell, Doris, cited, 170
Carnegie, Andrew, 125
Carter, James G., 93
CASTETTER, WILLIAM B., see Garber, Lee O., jt. author Children
  as affected by family changes, 77–78
  as affected by population mobility, 72–73
  See also Education in the U. S.—for the young child
CITIZEN LOOKS AT HIS SCHOOLS, A, Roy E. Larsen, 160–166
Clapp, Elsie R., cited, 135
Clark, Harold F., cited, 148
Clinton, DeWitt, 94
COCKING, WALTER D., and EDGAR L. MORPHET, Financing Public Education, 48–55
Cocking, Walter D., cited, 29
Collings, Ellsworth, 22
Compulsory school attendance, 49
  does not prohibit private school attendance, 97
  early opposition to, 96–97
  when enacted in various states, 96, 97
Conant, James Bryant, 4; cited, 167; quoted, 160
Cooley, Charles H., quoted, 75
Cooley, Thomas McIntyre, 98; quoted, 33
CO-ORDINATING COMMUNITY EDUCATIONAL SERVICES, Edward S. Olsen, 130–135
Counts, George S., cited, 136; quoted, 17–18
Cox, James M., 22
Cubberley, Ellwood P., cited, 12, 93, 94, 95, 96

Darwin, Charles Robert, 47
Davis, Allison, cited, 169
Davis, Mary D., cited, 102
Democracy
  basic values of, 18
  education for, 14, 17–24
  versus dictatorship, 2–3
DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY NEEDS PROFESSIONAL TEACHERS, A, W. Earl Armstrong, 136–141
Dewey, John, 22
DOUGLASS, HARL R., Education of All Youth for Life Adjustment, 108–114

Douglass, Harl R., cited, 169
Draper, Andrew S., quoted, 92

Education
as promoting international harmony, 5–6 through educational exchange, 8–9 through help for undeveloped countries, 7–8 through internationally minded teachers, 7 through objective textbooks, 6
through UNESCO, 1, 6, 7, 9
as related to the world scene, 1–9, 17, 69
basic to national life, 1, 108, 161 basic to world order, 1
democratic, 14, 17–24
European and American concepts of, contrasted, 11–12, 26
fears of consequences of, 11–13, 15–16 reflects national philosophies, 5, 14, 17, 108
totalitarian, 14–15
EDUCATION AND THE PRESENT WORLD ORDER, George F. Zook, 1–9
EDUCATION IN A DEMOCRACY, Harold Benjamin, 10–16 Education in the United States
a government function, 26
adaptation of, to students, 110
American concepts of education, 166
contrasted with European, 11–12, 26
as affected by population mobility, 72–73, 89–90
basis of promotion of, 31–32
equal opportunity
an accepted tenet, 48
historic opposition to and promotion of, 93–94, 95
not achieved, 18
thwarted by differential fertility, 88
thwarted by regional differences in wealth, 85–88, 108–109
extent of, 13, 109, 115–116
for the young child in the home, 101–102
in the modern school, 103–105
in the nursery school, 102–103
regarding human relationships, 105
treating the affective life of the child, 105–106 frontier concepts of, 10–11
general education defined, 113–114
in child development, 101, 106–107
lack of, shown by adults, 100
leadership in, 45–47
of atypical children, 109
principles of democratic education democratic school organization, 20–22
equal opportunity, 18, 48
examination of conflicting values, 18–20 integration of school and community, 22–23 measure of effectiveness of program, 23–24 reduction of retardation and elimination, 109 threats to, 14–16, 17
value of private education, 13–14
See also Adult education; Higher education; Secondary education; Schools
EDUCATION OF ALL YOUTH FOR LIFE ADJUSTMENT, Harl F. Douglass, 108–114
EDUCATION OF THE YOUNG CHILD, Willard C. Olson, 101–107 Educational load
disproportionate distribution of, 85–88
Educative agencies, 130
community resources, 131
co-ordination of, 132–135
EDWARDS, NEWTON, Population Change in the United States, 80–91
Edwards, Newton, cited, 83, 85, 86, 87, 168
editor, 167
quoted, 165
Eldridge, Hope Tisdale, cited, 72
Eliot, Charles W., 46
Elsbree, Willard S., cited, 171
Ely, Mary L., editor, 170
ESSERT, PAUL L., Adult Education in the United States, 122–129
Everett, Samuel, editor, 135
EVOLVING AND EXPANDING COMMON SCHOOL, THE, Edgar W. Knight, 92–100

Family, the, changes in, 76–78, 80, 108
FEDERAL AID FOR EDUCATION, William C. Reavis, 56–60
Financing adult education, 128–129
Financing higher education, 119
Federal aid for, 119–120
FINANCING PUBLIC EDUCATION, Walter D. Cocking and Edgar L. Morphet, 48–55 Financing public education administration of state and local funds, 53–55 distribution of state school funds, 51–52
expanding needs, 49
Federal grants of lands and funds, 57–58
government responsibility for, 48–49
in early U. S., 94–95
matching funds, 58–59
objections to Federal aid, 60, 99
proposed Federal aid, 59–60, 100
sources of state and local school revenues, 51 status of state and local support, 49–50 support by governmental levels, 50, 100
Fine, Benjamin, cited, 142, 172
Flora, A. C., cited, 169
Franklin, Benjamin, 112; quoted, 113
Frost, Janet, 167

FUNCTIONS OF GOVERNMENT IN EDUCATIONAL CONTROL, Lee O. Garber and William B. Castetter, 25–34

Galloway, Samuel, 93
GARBER, LEE O., and WILLIAM B. CASTETTER, Functions of Government in Educational Control, 25–34
Garber, Lee O., cited, 30
Gesell, Arnold L., cited, 170
Gilman, Daniel Coit, 46
Gilmore, Charles H., cited, 29
Good, Carter V., editor, 35
Goodwin, Frank, cited, 75
Government, natural limitations upon, 25
Governmental relations with schools
  Federal, 26–29, 42–44, 48–49, 56–60
  in higher education, 119–120
  local, 33–34, 38–42, 48
  state, 29–33, 35–38, 48, 95–96
  See also Financing higher education; Financing public education
Grieder, Calvin, cited, 169
Groves, Ernest R., cited, 169
Groves, Gladys H., cited, 169
Gustavson, R. G., cited, 66

Higher education
  adaptation of, to wider range of students, 116 admissions policies, 111–112, 117
  community colleges, 118
  enlarged enrollment in, 115–116
  financing of, 119–120
  inequality of opportunity in, 120 need for appraisal of results of, 121 preparation for, 111, 113, 117
  public scholarships needed, 120–121
  teacher-student ratio, 117–118
  See also Accreditation
Hansen, Alvin H., cited, 168
Hart, Joseph K., quoted, 130
Hartford, E. F., cited, 169
HASKEW, LAURENCE D., Society's Responsibility for Teacher Welfare, 142–150
Havighurst, Robert J., cited, 170
Hawley, Gideon, 96
Heermance, Edgar L., 152
Hill, Reuben, editor, 78
Hitler, Adolf, 3, 4
Hoff, Charles, cited, 147
Houle, Cyril O., cited, 171
HOW MAY THE SCHOOLS FURTHER DEMOCRACY? Harold Alberty, 17–24
HUBBARD, FRANK W., see Research Division, National Education Association
Hughes, Julius H., cited, 169
Hungate, Thad L., cited, 170

Ideological conflicts capitalism versus communism, 3–4
  dictatorship versus democracy, 2–3, 14–15 nationalism excessive, 4 reflected in educational systems, 5
  within United States, 17, 19–20
Intercultural co-operation, forms of, 9
  See also Education

Jefferson, Thomas, 48, 93, 122
Jordan, David Starr, 46
Judd, Charles H., cited, 172

Kandel, I. L., cited, 98
Kaplan, Abraham A., cited, 171
Kilpatrick, William Heard, 22
Kirkland, James Hampton, 46
Kiser, Louise K., cited, 169
KNIGHT, EDGAR W., The Evolving and Expanding Common School, 92–100
Knight, Edgar W., cited, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96
Koopman, George R., cited, 167

Labor unions of teachers, 157
Lancaster, Joseph, 93
LARSEN, ROY E., A Citizen Looks at His Schools, 160–166
Lawton, George, cited, 126
LEADERSHIP IN EDUCATION, D. J. Rose, 45–47
Lee, Muna, cited, 167
Lewis, Samuel, 93
Lincoln, Abraham, 94
Locke, Harvey J., cited, 78
Loeb, Martin B., cited, 170
Lorge, Irving, 125; cited, 126
Lorimer, Frank, cited, 169

McArthur, Duncan, 165
McCaskill, James L., editor, 170
McDonald, Ralph W., editor, 170
McGrath, Earl J., cited, 170; quoted, 113–114
McMurry, Ruth E., cited, 167
Malik, O. H., 2
Malthus, Thomas Robert, quoted, 11–12
Mann, Horace, 93, 96
MARTIN, T. D., The Profession Looks at Itself, 151–159
Maul, Ray C., cited, 150, 171
Miel, Alice, cited, 167
Migration within U. S. educational implications of, 72–73, 89–90
  motives for, 88
  1940–47, 89
  since 1920, 71–72
Miller, John L., 163
Mills, Caleb, 93
Misner, Paul J., cited, 167
MORPHET, EDGAR L., see Cocking, Walter D., jt. author
Morrison, Henry C., cited, 169; quoted, 12
Mort, Paul R., cited, 168, 172
Mursell, James L., cited, 170

Mussolini, Benito, 4

Napoleon I, 3
NEW FRONTIERS IN HIGHER EDUCATION, Ordway Tead, 115–121
Northrop, B. G., 96
Notestein, Frank W., 82

Ogden, Jean and Jess, cited, 127
OLSEN, EDWARD G., Co-ordinating Community Educational Services, 130–135
Olsen, Edward G., cited, 23, 126, 130, 135, 171
OLSON, WILLARD C., Education of the Young Child, 101–107
Olson, Willard C., cited, 104
ORGANIZATION OF THE EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM, Theodore L. Reller, 35–44

Paine, Thomas, 11
Perloff, Harvey S., cited, 168
Pierce, Truman M., cited, 171
Pitkin, Royce S., cited, 99
Plant, James S., cited, 75
POPULATION CHANGE IN THE UNITED STATES, Newton Edwards, 80–91
Population changes in U. S. aging population, 90–91
  record and prospect of growth, 80–82
  reproduction differentials
    as affecting educational opportunity, 85–88 cultural-economic, 84–86
    geographic, 83–85
  residence changes since 1920, 71–72
  urbanization, 74
Preston, Mary I., cited, 105
PROFESSION LOOKS AT ITSELF, THE, T. D. Martin, 151–159

Quattlebaum, Charles A., cited, 169

Raskin, A. H., cited, 127
REAVIS, WILLIAM C., Federal Aid for Education, 56–60
Reavis, William C., cited, 172
Recreation program
  school-community co-operation in, 132
Reeves, Floyd W., editor, 169
RELLER, THEODORE L., Organization of the Educational System, 35–44
Rennie, Thomas A. C., cited, 126
RESEARCH DIVISION, NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION, FRANK W. HUBBARD, DIRECTOR, Bibliography, 167–172
Reusser, Walter C., cited, 168
Richey, Herman G., cited, 83, 85, 86, 87; quoted, 165
ROSE, D. J., Leadership in Education, 45–47
Rugg, Harold, cited, 19, 126
Russell, John Dale, cited, 169
Russell, William F., cited, 168

Schools
  as a social agency, 25
  as affected by family changes, 77
  broadened functions of, 136–137
  citizen groups connected with schools lyceum movement, 165
    National Citizens Commission for the Public Schools, 160, 163 parent-teacher associations, 162, 165–166 citizen responsibility for and participation in, 160–166 common school
    cost of, 99
    deficiencies in, 99–100
    expansion of, to secondary level, 97–98 history of, 92–96
    not supported during the depression, 99
    public attitudes toward, 98–99
  community relationships of, 22–23, 73–74, 130–135, 163–164
    community responsibility, 161, 166 implications of, for adult education, 126 enrollment
    as affected by the rise and decline in birth rates, 82 factors in increase in, 49
  inadequate buildings, 82, 149 measure of effectiveness of, 23–24 nursery schools, 102–103
  organization of school system
    at state, local, and national levels, 35–44 internal democratic organization, 20–22 role of, as an educative agency, 130 student withdrawals from college, 115
  student withdrawals from high school, 109–110, 112
  See also Compulsory school attendance; Education in the United States; Governmental relations with schools Secondary education extent of high school attendance, 109, 115–116 extent of withdrawals from high school, 109–110, 112 hindrances to practicality of, 110–111 lack of student interest in, 110, 112 movements toward reform of, 112–114
  preparation for college, 111, 113, 117, 151
Shakespeare, William, 158
Shryock, Henry S., Jr., cited, 72
Slichter, Sumner H., cited, 70
SIGNIFICANCE OF ACCREDITATION, THE, A. J. Brumbaugh, 61–68
Smith, Adam, 11, 12, 122
Smith, Mabel, 167

Social change
changed methods of warfare, 108 changes in group living, 74–76 changes in material milieu, 69–70 changes in use of leisure time, 108 enlarged mental horizons, 73–74
family changes, 76–78, 80, 108 increased interdependence of people, 108 increased mobility, 71–73
increasing industrialization, 136 nature and rate of, 69–70
occasioned by aging population, 90–91 prolonged adolescence, 136
See also Compulsory school attendance
SOCIAL CHANGE IN THE UNITED STATES, James H. S. Bossard, 69–79
SOCIETY'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR TEACHER WELFARE, Laurence D. Haskew, 142–150
Spock, Benjamin, cited, 102
Stevens, Thaddeus, 95
Story, Mattison Lee, cited, 149
Stratemeyer, Florence B., cited, 170
Strikes
no-strike policy of teachers, 157–158
Strong, E. K., 125; cited, 126
Swett, John, 93

Taxation
unsatisfactory state systems of, 52–53
Teacher welfare
academic freedom, 147, 149
as affecting teacher supply, 149–150 economic returns, 144–145, 147–148, 154 nature of, 142–143
present status of, 147–149
society's responsibility for, 143–150 vocational satisfaction, 146–147, 149
vocational security, 145–146, 148, 154
working conditions, 146, 148
Teachers
as a social force, 158
as aiding world understanding, 7
certification policies for, 140, 151, 152
education of, 118, 136
in-service training, 140, 141, 152
labor relations of, 157–158
recruitment of, 139–140
role of, in democratic school organization, 21–22 salaries
basis of, 144–145
increase in, 99, 154
present status of, 147–148
proposed scale of, 140, 154
shortage of, 100, 149–150
Teachers' organizations efforts of, to improve standards, 140
growth and activities of, 154–157
Teaching as a career efforts to improve, 153–154
unattractive, 139
See also Teacher welfare
Teaching as a profession
professional ethics, 147, 152–153, 157–158
professional qualifications, 151–154
professional teachers
community relationships of, 138–139
functions of, 137–139
qualifications of, 137
strength of, 158–159
TEAD, ORDWAY, New Frontiers in Higher Education, 115–121
Tead, Ordway, cited, 117
Thompson, Warren S., cited, 71
Thorndike, Edward L., 125; cited, 126
Truman, Harry S., 7

Vincent, William S., cited, 172

Warner, W. Lloyd, cited, 170
Washington, George, quoted, 165
Webster, Daniel, quoted, 94
Webster, Noah, quoted, 166
Welborn, Ernest L., cited, 144
Westby, Cleve O., cited, 168
White, Andrew Dickson, 46
Wiley, Calvin H., 93, 96
William II of Germany (Kaiser Wilhelm), 4
Williams, Charl Ormond, compiler, 92
Wilson, Woodrow, quoted, 25, 26
Winston, Ellen, cited, 169
Woodward, Luther E., cited, 126
Woody, Thomas, editor, 113
World solidarity, 1–2

Zimmerman, Carle C., cited, 78
ZOOK, GEORGE F., Education and the Present World Order, 1–9